NEW YORK FOLKLORE

Vol. 23, Nos. 1-4, 1997

CONTENTS

Editor's Foreword v

Articles

Just Like a Ghost: A Reflexive Analysis of Three Spiritualist Belief Narratives — Jennifer E. Porter — 1

Dyngus Days and Kolędy Nights: Folk Celebrations in Polish-American Communities — Deborah Anders Silverman — 25

Golem as Gentile, Golem as Sabra: An Analysis of the Manipulation of Stereotypes of Self and Other in Literary Treatments of a Legendary Jewish Figure — Danusha Goska — 39

The New Age: Where Folklore and Cultural Studies Meet Retail and Belief — Bruce Lionel Mason and Eileen Mary Condon — 65

Book Reviews

Croy, Jesse James Was My Neighbor — W. K. McNeil — 89

Fisher, The Emergence of Standard English — W. K. McNeil — 91

Judson, Myths and Legends of the Pacific Northwest — W. K. McNeil — 93

Kingsbury, Kingsbury, and Mieder, Weather Wisdom: Proverbs, Superstitions and Signs — Laura J. Bobrow — 95

Manuel, Bilby, and Larghey, Caribbean Currents: From Rumba to Reggae — Paul Austerlitz — 96

Zipes, Fairy Tale as Myth—Myth as Fairy Tale — W. F. H. Nicolaisen — 99

Editorial Policy 103